

Touch Switzerland (TS) – Swiss Cup 2023 Scope and Rules

TS will conduct the 2023 Swiss Cup over the period 13 May 23 – October 28 2023. Four Swiss Cup tournament days will be held:

SC1: Saturday 13 May– Basel

SC2: Saturday 24 June – Luzern

SC3: Saturday 23 September – Lausanne

SC4: Saturday 28 October – Bern

Aim of the Swiss Cup

Provide a professional competition which enhances the development and standard of Touch within Switzerland, involving and encouraging all levels and ages of players, referees and support staff and builds on the 'grass roots' Touch club.

- Development of Skills (Individual goal)
- Increase Participation (Organisation goal/Club goal)
- FIT (European) standard of tournament (Organisation/Individual/Club)
- Social development of TS and clubs (Organisation/Club goal)
- Talent recognition (Organisation)

Swiss Cup Rules

- All teams play in one competition at two levels – Cup and Plate
- Four Swiss Cups – dates below
- Cup and Plate to be awarded end of season
- Development awards to be awarded each tournament
- Mixed format (male child age 14 and under counts as female)
- Penalties applied to teams not playing mixed rules
- Clubs may combine to form teams for the 2023 season duration ie. All four Swiss Cups
- One Barbarians team slot may be offered in the event not all clubs have team OR if team registration is below 10.
- All teams to be afforded same amount of game time
- Representative players encouraged to attend all Swiss Cups.

Format

Swiss Cup 1, 2 and 3

- 20mingameson30mintimeslot–6gamesperteam/day
- One competition
- Penalties for not fielding mixed team
- Round games followed by playoffs at each event
- MVP/development awards at each SC event

→ After Swiss Cup 3 teams are ranked 1 to 10 (based on Swiss Cup 1, 2 and 3 results) then will be placed into Cup (Top 5) and Plate (Bottom 5) divisions for Swiss Cup 4.

Swiss Cup 4

- 30min games on 45min time slot
- 4 games per team/day
- Two competitions : Plate and Cup
- Penalties for not fielding mixed team
- Round games only
- MVP/development awards at each SC event

→ SC4 game results (points) determine 2023 Cup and Plate winners

Any questions please reach out 😊

Marion Patxot

Email: events@touchswitzerland.ch | marionpatxot@gmail.com

Phone: +41 78 850 28 68